

should not be introduced at public expense if a correlation is not statistically significant, regardless of whether the correlation is statistically significant or not. The correlation should not be introduced with social science.

M2_13

- I have not taken any medicines prescribed by my doctor
- There have been a lot of problems
- There have been no problems at all
- There have been some problems